FACTS GIVING RISE TO FORFEITURE

11. On or about November 6, 2017, law enforcement received a tip regarding the suspicious travel of Jamal Johnson (“Johnson”). Johnson was scheduled to travel from Los Angeles, California to St. Louis, Missouri on November 6, 2017, and travel from St. Louis, Missouri to Los Angeles, California on November 7, 2017.

12. On or about November 6, 2017, law enforcement officers responded to Lambert St. Louis International Airport (“Airport”), located within the Eastern District of Missouri, in order to locate Johnson.

13. Investigators located Johnson in the baggage area of Terminal Two of the Airport with one piece of luggage. Investigators observed Johnson board a shuttle belonging to Quality Inn. Johnson traveled via shuttle to Quality Inn located at 10232 Natural Bridge, Road, St. Louis, Missouri, which is approximately one mile from the Airport.

14. Investigators responded to Quality Inn and observed Johnson exit the Airport shuttle and enter the hotel. Johnson walked into the lobby and walked past the front desk. Johnson never checked into a hotel room and did not have a reservation at the hotel.

15. Investigators continued surveillance on the hotel and at approximately 4:00 a.m. on November 7, 2017, Johnson was seen exiting the hotel rolling a piece of luggage. Johnson was then seen boarding the Quality Inn shuttle. Investigators followed the shuttle to the Airport. Johnson was seen exiting the shuttle with his luggage and entering Terminal Two of the Airport for departures.

16. Investigators continued surveillance of Johnson inside the Airport. Johnson checked his luggage with Southwest Airlines, went through security and proceeded to the Terminal Two gate area.

17. Investigators responded with a certified drug detection canine to the baggage make-up area of Terminal Two. Investigators deployed the canine to the luggage cart which contained Johnson's luggage. The canine gave a positive response to Johnson's luggage for the odor of a controlled substance.

18. After the drug detection canine's positive response to Johnson's luggage, investigators approached Johnson who was seated at Gate 12. Johnson agreed to a consensual interview.

19. Investigators asked Johnson for his identification and flight information which Johnson provided. When Johnson provided his phone with his travel ticket and his California State ID his hand was trembling and shaking profusely.

20. Investigators asked Johnson about his travel plans, to which Johnson stated he was in town for a few hours to meet a friend named “Joe” and that he spent time at Joe’s house while he was in town. Investigators asked if “Joe” had a last name and Johnson answered that he did not know it.

21. Johnson then spontaneously stated that he was actually in town looking at a car. When asked what kind of car, Johnson said the car was a Camaro, but he could not provide the color of the car, whom he talked to about the car, or where the car was located.

22. When talking to investigators, Johnson stuttered, looking at the ground when spoken to and when providing answers to questions.

23. Investigators asked Johnson if he was carrying any U.S. currency with him to which he responded that he had money in his luggage because he was going to purchase a vehicle. Johnson could not provide an explanation as to why he did not purchase the vehicle.

24. Johnson consented to a search of his luggage.

25. Investigators subsequently opened Johnson’s luggage and located several bundles of an undetermined amount of U.S. currency concealed in several pockets of jeans. When asked how much U.S. currency he was travelling with, Johnson estimated it to be around $26,000.

26. The currency, which was primarily in denominations of $100, $50 and $20 bills, was later counted and totaled to be $27,013.00 (hereinafter “defendant currency”).

27. When investigators asked whether he was employed, Johnson admitted he was unemployed. When asked how he acquired the defendant currency if he was unemployed, Johnson could not provide an answer.

28. Investigators advised Johnson that they believed the defendant currency was proceeds of narcotics transactions, to which Johnson responded: "That money is from weed. I'm not giving anybody up."

29. Investigators asked Johnson if he was willing to provide any specific details of where and from whom the defendant currency came. Johnson replied, "I'm not snitching. I've got nothing to say."

30. Following the above exchange, Johnson completed and signed a "Disclaimer of Ownership of Assets & Waiver of Rights to Notice of Seizure" form. On this form, Johnson acknowledged that miscellaneous U.S. currency was seized from him and he initialed next to the following statement: "I hereby state that I am not the owner of the listed assets and have no claim for its return to me."

COUNT ONE – FORFEITURE
21 U.S.C. § 881(a)(6)

31. The United States incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 to 30 above as if fully set forth herein.

32. The defendant currency was seized in transit to a known narcotics source area and was being carried by an individual who provided inconsistent stories of its source and ownership, ultimately disclaiming ownership. Further, Johnson admitted that the defendant currency was "from weed." As additional confirmation that the defendant currency was money furnished or intended to be furnished in exchange for a controlled substance, a trained narcotics canine alerted positively to the presence of a controlled substance on the defendant currency.

33. Based on the foregoing, the defendant currency is subject to forfeiture pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 881(a)(6) as money furnished or intended to be furnished in exchange for a controlled substance, or as proceeds traceable to such exchange, and as money used or intended to be used to facilitate any violation of the Controlled Substances Act.

COUNT TWO – FORFEITURE
18 U.S.C. § 981(a)(1)(A)

34. The United States incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 to 30 above as if fully set forth herein.

35. The defendant currency is proceeds of an unlawful activity involving controlled substances and was transported by and through the Eastern District of Missouri by Johnson with the intent to promote the carrying on of, and to conceal or disguise the nature, location, source, ownership or control of, a specified unlawful activity.

36. Based on the foregoing, the defendant currency is subject to forfeiture, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 981(a)(1)(A) as property involved in a transaction or attempted transaction in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956, or as property traceable to such property.

COUNT THREE – FORFEITURE
18 U.S.C. § 981(a)(1)(C)

37. The United States incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 to 30 above as if fully set forth herein.

38. The defendant currency is proceeds of an unlawful activity involving controlled substances that travelled with Johnson in interstate commerce with the intent to distribute it, and otherwise promote, manage, establish, carry on, or facilitate the promotion, management, establishment, or carrying on, of an unlawful activity involving controlled substances.

39. Based on the foregoing, the defendant currency is subject to forfeiture, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 981(a)(1)(C) as property that constitutes or is derived from proceeds traceable to a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1952.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the United States of America prays that a Warrant for Arrest be issued in rem for the defendant currency and the defendant currency be condemned and forfeited to the United States of America, in accordance with the provisions of law; and that the United States of America be awarded its costs in this action, and have such other relief as provided by law and the nature of the case may require.

Respectfully submitted,

JEFFREY B. JENSEN

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

I. (a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.

(b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)

(c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".

II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.C.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.

United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.

United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.

Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.

Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)

III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.

IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If the nature of suit cannot be determined, be sure the cause of action, in Section VI below, is sufficient to enable the deputy clerk or the statistical clerks in the Administrative Office to determine the nature of suit. If the cause fits more than one nature of suit, select the most definitive.

V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.

Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.

Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.

Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.

Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.

Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.

Multidistrict Litigation. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407. When this box is checked, do not check (5) above.

Appeal to District Judge from Magistrate Judgment. (7) Check this box for an appeal from a magistrate judge's decision.

VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553
Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service

VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.

Demand. In this space enter the dollar amount (in thousands of dollars) being demanded or indicate other demand such as a preliminary injunction.

Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.
